Entrepreneurship cell and Incubation Center

Written by Farheen Khan

IQAC of Reena Mehta College of Arts, Science, Commerce and Management Studies Inaugurated “Entrepreneurship cell and Incubation Center” on 22nd February 2022 11:00 am onwards.

Inauguration was done by Mr. Gaurav Mishra, the founder of Navayuvak Entrepreneur. He shared his insight on what Entrepreneurship is all about. He also shared that Entrepreneurship is as much about taking risks as it is about being patient enough to realize the reward and doing the hard work, brick by brick, day by day, while the other parts of life unfold right alongside it.

He also stated that every Entrepreneur wants to hit their first major milestone faster. In some cases, they fund the project themselves and, in others, they gather investors.

The Young Entrepreneurs from the college as well as the Alumni batch were felicitated by the dignitaries. Some Entrepreneurs also shared their experience with their fellow mates and stated that "If you want to win hearts and minds, you have to lead with your heart as well as your mind" and guided them towards their career. While the TYBCOM Alumni 2014 batch also offered financial help to those who want to start their own venture.

On 17th and 18th February, Reena Mehta College of Arts, Commerce, Science and Management Studies had organized an online cultural festival, Mridang. The preparations were done by different committees that were set up for different performances.

The college campus was full of posters and pamphlets informing about the upcoming mridang fest, and contact of the different club heads and faculty in charge were written interested students can contact on the same number.

After that one by one gossip and discussions started in the college different WhatsApp groups were made and the selection process started. After the selection process was completed students were assigned the tasks and were asked to prepare the performances accordingly.

Students were excited. Those who were residing in the college started as they had time, place, and support. The teachers also selected most of the college students because they were college inside the campus only. Days before the program the basic preparation got started like practicing many more things. In my college, there was a special show from the Solo dancing.

Waste Management

Current Scenario

Large quantities of unsegregated waste collected from households, hotels and corporates gets transported to dumping ground.

Mumbai generates 10000 tonnes of waste everyday

Implications

- All resources get blocked – no reuse or recycling
- Huge expenditure on transportation
- Emissions due to transportation
- Dumping ground – emissions, leachates and needs huge space

Our vision for solid waste management and climate change

- Decentralised
- Low Cost
- Energy Efficient
- Labour Friendly
- High resource recovery
- Environmentally sound
- Sustainable

IQAC & B. Com Department of Reena Mehta College of Arts, Science, Commerce & Management Studies is organizing one day online webinar on - “Waste Management for a better tomorrow” on 8th January, 2022. The resource person for the webinar was Ms. Rashmi Joshi.

The RMC Photo Club, an initiative of Bachelor of Arts in Multimedia and Mass Communication Department, in association with Canon organized an online workshop on 15/ 02/ 2022. The workshop was conducted from 12:10 PM to 01:30 PM on Google Meet platform. Around 43 learners from across various programs participated in this event. The intention was to teach learners a skill that would enhance their visual literacy, equip them with technical knowledge and increase their employability.

The speaker for the said workshop was Mr. Rajesh Kamat, a senior trainer at Canon India. The participants were excited to learn basics of composition, camera make, parts and functions and other such intricacies of photographic art. The event received an overall satisfactory response.

Mr. Rajesh Kamat shared various experiences with the students about the industry requirements. He also discussed the techniques followed in fashion photography. He explained how he set up the lights and how to view them from a different perspective. He gave tips to the students who are aspiring to make career in Photography. A health discussion about how to become successful photographers in the industry took place.

The session was very informative and interactive for the students. The event was spearheaded by Asst. Prof. Durgesh Gupta, Head of the Department Bachelor of Arts Mass and Media Communication.

BIDDING FAREWELL TO LEGENDS

Alvida Disco King- Bappi Lahiri

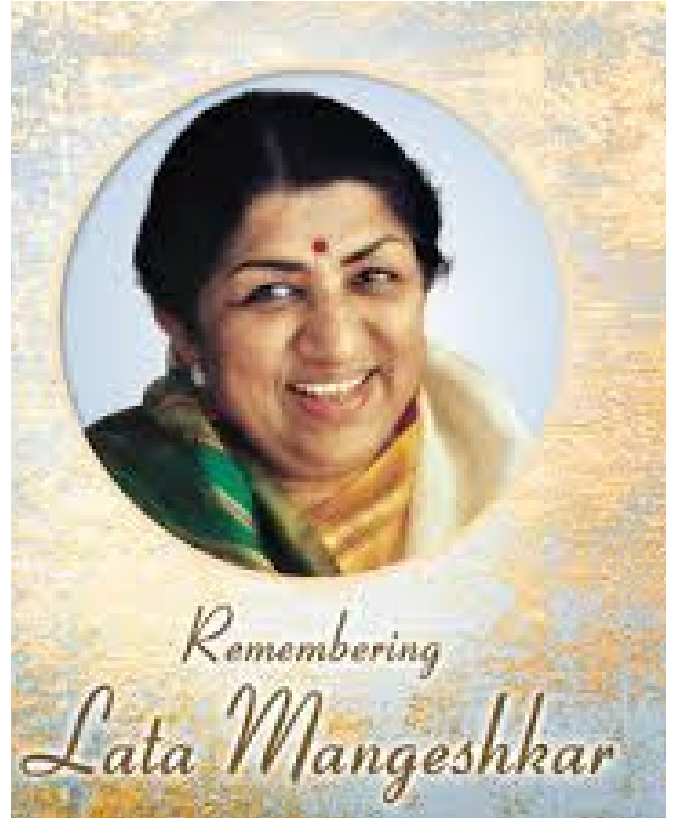

Bappi Da is No More!

The "Disco King" Bappi Da breathed his last on 15th February around 11:40 PM – 11:45 PM on Tuesday night.

He died of obstructive sleep apnea. Bappi Lahiri, a music composer, vocalist and a Bollywood Legend, died in Mumbai at the age of 69.

He was well known for his role in popularising the sound of disco music in India. Lahiri is most known for his work in Bengali films such as Amar Prem, Mandira, Badnam, and Aamar Tumi, among others.

Reena Mehta College of Arts, Commerce, Science and Management Studies pays its sincere respects to the evergreen Bappi Da.

Nightingale of Indian Cinema Becomes Silent Forever

Bharat Ratna awardee Lata Mangeshkar breathed her last on 6th February on Sunday at the age of 92. The cause of death was multi-organ failure. Her last rites were performed on Sunday evening with state honours at Mumbai's Shivaji Park.

In her eight decade long career she had lent her voice to thousands of songs in more than 36 languages. She was Known as Swar Kokila. Her death brings down the curtain on an era in the Indian film industry.

As a mark of respect to her a two-day national mourning was observed. The National Flag was kept at half-mast for two days and there was no official entertainment.

Reena Mehta College of Arts, Commerce, Science and Management Studies too observed a days mourning and paid condolences to our beloved Lata Didi.

Chhatrapati Shivaji Jayanti

According to the Gregorian Calendar Nation celebrated the 392nd birth anniversary of the greatest Maratha warrior Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj on February 19, 2022. The birth anniversary of the great Maratha king Shivaji is celebrated as Shivaji Jayanti every year.

Even Reena Mehta College of arts science commerce and management studies paid his tributes to the legendary Maharaj here are the few things that one must know about Maharaj

1.Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj is also known as the father of the Indian Navy after he built a powerful navy army to protect sea trade. Shivaji Maharaj was among the few who realised the importance of naval force back then.

2.Shivaji Maharaj formed the first army of the Marathas, who were also paid throughout the year. He appointed both Hindus and Muslims without any discrimination, which helped him in establishing one of the largest armies.

3.Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj was a supporter of women and stood for their honour. Under Shivaji's rule, no woman was harmed in the raided and captured territories.
