Current Scenario

Large quantities of unsegregated waste collected from households, hotels and corporates gets transported to dumping ground.

Mumbai generates 10000 tonnes of waste everyday

Implications

- All resources get blocked - no reuse or recycling
- Huge expenditure on transportation
- Emissions due to transportation
- Dumping ground - emissions, leachates and needs huge space

Our vision for solid waste management and climate change

- Decentralised
- Low Cost
- Energy Efficient
- Labour Friendly
- High resource recovery
- Environmentally sound
- Sustainable

Report on “Waste Management for a better tomorrow”

IQAC & B. Com Department of Reena Mehta College of Arts, Science, Commerce & Management Studies is organizing one day online webinar on - “Waste Management for a better tomorrow” on 8th January, 2022. Mr. Darshan Joshi, BAF & BBI Coordinator, introduced and welcomed the resource person Ms. Rashmi Joshi.

Waste Management for a better tomorrow is the webinar arranged keeping following objectives in to consideration.

- To introduce and aware students to real concerns of environment and its sustainability.
- To reduce waste generation.
- To segregate waste to enable re-cycling to promote ‘Best out of Waste’ concept.
- To promote waste as wealth concept.

Ms. Rashmi Joshi during the webinar made students aware about the current scenario on waste generation and how we can contribute in solid waste management and climate change. Ms. Rashmi Joshi also guided on segregation of different waste like wet and dry waste, E-Waste & Hazardous waste. Ma’am also showed practically the measure which can be taken in order to minimize the plastic waste in the environment. Ma’am suggested certain measures like collection, segregation and depositing same to recycling agency, Seed Collection and plantation of the same.

On the whole, the deliberation enabled the students to understand the impact of waste disposed in environment and as a responsible citizen how they can contribute to minimize the impact on environment.

Mr. Darshan Joshi, proposed the vote of thanks to Ms. Rashmi Joshi for taking out time and address our students. More than 160 students registered and attended the session and also gave positive feedback for the session.

To,

The Principal,

Sub:-Letter to seek permission for taking students to Social activity

Respected madam,

This letter is to seek permission for taking students to 'Tree Plantation activity' under Institutional Social Responsibility program. Under this activity, around 30 students of Reena Mehta College in collaboration with a NGO Green Mission Mumbai will be part of tree plantation at Chhota Kashmir, Aarey Colony, Goregaon on Tuesday 9th July between 9am to 12noon.

The objective of this activity is to make students environmentally concerned. Kindly grant us the permission for this noble initiative.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

Amruta Pawar

BMM Co-ordinator

Report on Intellectual property rights & gender equality

Reena Mehta College of Arts, Science, Commerce and Management Studies organized a Faculty Development Programme on INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS & GENDER EQUALITY on 20th August 2019, from 10:30 AM -12:30 PM for all the faculties. The speakers for the session were Prof. Sheetal Kumar Setia and Dr. Swati Rautela. After introducing and welcoming the guest speaker by Mrs. Urmila Chauhan the platform was handed over to the speaker. The sessions were conducted in two halves in college auditorium. The first session was started on the topic of Intellectual property rights by Prof. Sheetal Kumar Setia where she highlighted on current scenario of IPR and its significant role in trade of every nation. The first session ended with informing about Awareness programmes and activities about Intellectual property. Second session started with highlighting because it is crucial to reduce gender inequalities if we are looking forward to build more sustainable future. Also, she emphasized it is not just about fundamental right of equality but a necessary foundation for a peaceful, prosperous and sustainable world.

Both the sessions were very enlightening where speakers made us understand how important it is to discuss about Intellectual Property Rights and Gender Equality. The appreciable session ended by thanksgiving to the speakers and all the participants by Mrs. Urmila Chauhan.

Brief Report on Unequal Pay: Gender Discrimination at Work Place

IQAC & WDC of Reena Mehta College of Arts, Science, Commerce and Management Studies In support with National Commission for Women organised One Day National Webinar on "UNEQUAL PAY: GENDER DISCRIMINATION AT WORK PLACE" on 11th December, 2021.

The programme started at 10:00 am with the welcome address by Mrs. Vaishali Kothiya. with welcoming all participants and Saraswathi Vandana. The dignitaries for the session were Dr Hema Mehta, Tolani College of Commerce, Mumbai, Dr. Yogita Mandole, Asst. Professor, Smt. Surajba College of Education, Mumbai, Mr. Amar Salve, Assistant Professor, HVPS College of Law, Mumbai, Dr. Jitendra Ahirkar, I/C Principal, B. L. AMLANI College of Commerce & Economics, Mumbai.

Key note Address by

Dr. Hema Mehta, HOD, Department of Law, Tolani College of Commerce

Opening remarks and introduction of the programme was given by Dr Hema Mehta. She highlighted on the World Economic Forum's Global Gender Gap Report 2020 which says men and women will have pay equality in 257 years. Of the 153 countries studied for the report, India ranks 112th on the overall Global Gender Gap Index. The economic gender gap runs particularly deep and has gotten significantly wider. While on one hand, the skill and wage mismatch is further exacerbated by the Indian societal norms—marriage, maternity and mobility causing a deep dent in women's workforce participation, on the other, there are progressive companies that are playing catalysts in women achieving equal pay.

She also stressed on Satya Nadella, the CEO of Microsoft, in an interview ahead of a prominent group of women IT professionals, said that women needed to trust "karma" if they don't get the pay raise, they needed. "It's not really about posing for a raise, but knowing and having faith that the system will offer you the proper raise". The statement was widely criticized, resulting in a fast apology from Nadella, but it delivered to the fore a fundamental question about how labour markets function, especially towards members of disadvantaged and marginalized groups. Should such individuals "have faith" and hope for his or her rewards to improve? If labour markets don't recognize and appropriately remunerate their worth, is it just a case of bad luck, or of labour market discrimination? the matter isn't simply one among pay raises, but more broadly one among gender parity in wages. Ironically, Nadella's statement came at a time when the White House officially recognized that the Equal Pay Act of 1963 features a great distance to travel before gender parity in pay is achieved.

Hence need is to understand many terms in depth.

HOW RECOGNIZE WHEN A SELF-CARE PRACTICE IS NOW LONGER SELF-CARE?

- When your self-care starts to feel like work
- When person thinks that s/he may handle with mental illness on her/his along
- When anxiety gets higher

What to do?

- Stay open minded
- Give yourself a lot of options
- Just say "no" (use the calendar with fulfillments of your time for yourself)
- Get help (therapist, psychologist, wellness coach)

Self-care means consciously doing something to promote your own well-being

SELF CARE

- Emotional self-care - "should I go or should stay?", emotional insights, "take a pause"
- Physical self-care, such as prioritizing sleep, exercises routine, choosing healthy and nourishing foods over highly processed ones, green veggies, balancing carbs, fat and proteins.
- Spiritual self-care, such as attending a religious service, spending time in nature, meditation, acts of kindness, gratitude journal, appreciation and so on
