The Banking & Insurance department of Reena Mehta College Of Arts, Science, Commerce, and Management Studies organized the “Investors Awareness program “of “Finisters”, a cultural club of Banking & Insurance department with the collaboration of the Placement committee. The aim of the Finister club is to make learning fun.

Department initiated “Finister CLUB” for all UG students to train on the Basics of the Stock Market, Investment Opportunities and develop skills. Investor Training Programme bridging the gap between the classroom and the financial workplace.

The core ideology of the club is cultivating the interest of students in finance as an academic subject and as a career option. The club activities cover a broad range of domains in finance like investment avenues, trading, and settlement. The core activities include conducting knowledge sessions, quizzes, case analysis, career preparation sessions, mock trading and guest lectures, experts from BSE, NSE, Mutual Funds, NCDEX, and MCX to educate the KJC students and to create awareness regarding the Stock market and commodities market (capital market) and in the working of the stock trading in Indian exchanges by virtually. It stresses spreading financial literacy among students through the practical applicability approach. In light of its motive “Make an investment in yourself”, it organizes numerous events throughout the academic year ranging from seminars and Stock exchanges.

Mr. Amogh Gothoskar is the speaker of the “Investors awareness program” taken initiated to make students understand related to capital Markets.

The total number of participants in the seminar is 327.
