The MMS program focuses on sculpting students into highly professional and capable business managers throwing them into the ring to react smartly to true-to-life situations using their wit, presence of mind, analytical skills and business acumen. This brings out their true potential and they emerge as tough professionals after going through rigor and relentless focused hard work.

Relevance to Business Studies:

The content presented at the seminar proved highly relevant to business studies, offering practical applications and insights that can be integrated into academic coursework and future careers. The event comprised the following key elements:

1. Planning about future: Facilitated simulation by only thinking and not deciding what students want to become in future, what exactly they want from their life.
2. Think Better: Supporting students to pen down their original thoughts or share their experience on what they want to do after graduation. To let go off their fear of being judged, by their write-ups.

The B school seminar yielded several noteworthy outcomes:

1. Improved Understanding: Students understood the true meaning of Creative writing and found penning down their experiences to be more fulfilling, rather than copying pasting or rote learning from different sources.
2. Exploring their Minds: In this generation of cell phones & instagram reels, surfing something informative is next to impossible. This seminar gave them the required time and opportunity to explore their minds and feel good about their future.
